

Members and Visitors Code of Conduct

Crowlands Heath Golf Club believes that it is the responsibility of everybody involved in our Club to ensure it remains free from discrimination or intimidation and is a safe place for all.

In doing so we ask that you:

- Treat everyone fairly and do not discriminate on the grounds of race, gender, age, sexual orientation, disability etc.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person and treat everyone with mutual trust and respect
- Be mindful of the well-being and safety of all individuals
- Promote the positive aspects of golf (e.g. fair play) at the club and in the wider community

If you see any form of discrimination, do not condone it or allow it to go unchallenged and report to the club management as soon as possible.

We will not tolerate any form of:

- Physical or verbal abuse
- Bullying or harassment
- Use of foul, abusive or discriminatory language
- Inappropriate physical contact

Responsibilities for players

The game of golf is based on honesty and integrity. Your responsibilities as a player are to:

- Play to the Rules of Golf including local rules
- Act with integrity and refrain from using or overcoming any rule to obtain a benefit or unfair advantage
- Play to the best of your ability
- Certify scores accurately for fellow players after witnessing a round
- Have only one handicap record, administered by your home club
- Return all acceptable scores - making the best possible score on each hole
- Submit competition scores promptly after play and general play scores before midnight on the day of play.
- Pre-register any intent before starting to play.

Any breaches of this code of conduct will be subject to our disciplinary procedures and dealt with by the management of the Club.
